

SUMMER DAY CAMPS 2019

Red Deer & Area Day Camps

Summer break is coming and while that means backyard fun for many folks there are others already scratching their heads about childcare or just wondering what they're going to do for two months. Young people need opportunities—outside of school—to learn and develop new skills and interests with other youth and adults. Summer is a great time to develop the *asset of constructive use of time. While Red Deer has many amenities and events, day camps can also be a fun part of summer while building the assets of creative activities and youth programs. We're here to help, so if you're looking to check off a few of these assets this summer, we've listed a number of day camps we've discovered along the way. Click links for registration forms, registration dates and contact information.
