Red Deer Catholic Regional Schools would like to congratulate the former eight students who will be awarded $1000 each in high school apprenticeship scholarships at the Game Changers in the Modern Workforce virtual awards ceremony yesterday evening. The students are:

- Chase Carlson - Welding, St. Joseph High School
- Jeffrey Jardine - Electrical, St. Joseph High School
- Luke Larson - Heavy Equipment, École Secondaire Notre Dame High School
- Neil Ebenal - Heavy Equipment, École Secondaire Notre Dame High School
- Noah Schmucki - Motorcycle Mechanic, St. Joseph High School
- Jared Rose - Carpenter, St. Dominic Catholic High School
- Terrance Currie-Trimming - Instrumentation and Control Technician, St. Dominic Catholic High School
- Anthony Stewart - Automotive Service Technician, St. Dominic Catholic High School

This event is to honour high school students from across the province who have extraordinary dedication and drive to their trades.

“We are excited to celebrate this amazing achievement. The focus and dedication these students have on their future careers is outstanding. I was blessed to be part of this virtual event where we can recognize the achievement of these individuals and the bright futures that lay ahead of them,” said Superintendent, Kathleen Finnigan at Red Deer Catholic Regional Schools.

“The opportunity for students to enter the skilled trades while in high school and experience authentic learning opportunities is invaluable and cannot be replicated without our valued community business partners. We, along with our students, are so grateful to them for providing these rich developmental environments. The scholarships awarded help young apprentices pay for
